Newsletter 3.

Dear Families,

Another lovely and busy week has passed in Langwith Bassett. Thank you so much to everyone who contributed to our Roald Dahl Day. There were some fantastic costumes, and we raised £63 towards our school fundraising. The children took part in some great activities and celebrated some of his most famous books. I hope you enjoyed some of the pictures which were shared on Facebook.

Thank you also to everyone who was able to join Mrs Coles for her parent information session about "The Zones of Regulation" If you were unable to join us, Mrs Coles will be adding the presentation to the Academy website in due course.

In staffing news, I am sorry to inform you that Mrs Coleman has decided to leave us at Christmas. As you know she had requested a reduction in her timetable but has now secured an amazing opportunity elsewhere. We shall be very sorry to see her leave. As I write this, she remains unwell, but I hope to see her back soon. In the meantime, I have secured a highly recommended teacher to teach class 2 until she returns, so that I may fully resume my duties as principal. I have loved teaching class 2 and will certainly be supporting their learning journey moving forward. We are currently advertising for a full time permanent member of staff to teach class 2 from January 2026. I will keep you fully informed as I know more.

A reminder of a few dates coming up this week, please join us for our Termly Books and Brekkie tomorrow, Tuesday 23rd September at Academy Drop off time from 8.30-8.45. You are most welcome to join your children in class to share stories and a bagel for Breakfast.

On Wednesday we have our phonics meeting for reception. Come along and join us in the Academy Hall at 2.45 to find out about how children learn early phonics. Again, information from this will be posted on the website after the event in case you are unable to attend.

It is our annual Coffee afternoon for Macmillan on Friday at 2.30pm. This is a cause particularly close to my heart this year and I would love for you all to come and join us to raise funds for this wonderful charity. I can honestly say from the heart, that my journey was made much more bearable through their fabulous support. If anyone would like to donate cakes or biscuits, please would you drop them off at the academy office this week.

Thank you, as always, for your support.
